5 amending RCW 43.330A.020, 9.41.050, and 9.41.360; adding a new 6 section to chapter 9.41 RCW; prescribing penalties; and providing an 7 effective date.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9.41 RCW
10 to read as follows:

11 (1) Secure storage of firearms in vehicles.

12 (a) A person shall not store or leave a pistol in any vehicle 13 unless (i) the pistol is stored unloaded in a container that is 14 opaque, locked, hard-sided, and affixed within the vehicle, (ii) the 15 container is concealed from view from outside the vehicle, and (iii) 16 the vehicle is locked.

17 (b) A person shall not store or leave a rifle or shotgun in any 18 vehicle unless (i) the rifle or shotgun is stored unloaded in a 19 container that is opaque, locked, hard-sided or soft-sided, and 20 affixed within the vehicle, (ii) the container is concealed from view 21 from outside the vehicle, and (iii) the vehicle is locked.

1 (c) A rifle or shotgun stored in a soft-sided container in a
2 vehicle in accordance with this subsection must also have a trigger
3 lock or similar device that is designed to prevent the unauthorized
4 use or discharge of the firearm installed on the rifle or shotgun
5 while the firearm is stored in a soft-sided container.

6 (d) For the purpose of this subsection, a hard-sided container
7 excludes a glove compartment or center console but includes a console 8 vault or other container specifically designed to securely store
9 firearms.

10 (e) This subsection does not apply to:

11 (i) Antique firearms;

12 (ii) Storing or leaving a firearm in a vehicle used for farm
13 operations that is on the person's private farmland, including a 14 leased farm, as "farm" and "farmland" are defined in RCW 7.48.310;

15 (iii) A person who lives in a vehicle, as "vehicle" is defined in 16 RCW 46.70.011, uses that vehicle as their primary residence, and 17 stores or leaves their own firearms in that vehicle. For the purpose 18 of this subsection, a person uses their vehicle as their primary 19 residence when the person habitually uses the vehicle as living 20 quarters a majority of the time and conducts activities in the 21 vehicle consistent with the common understanding of residing, such as 22 sleeping, eating, and keeping personal belongings. A person who lives 23 in a vehicle is subject to all secure storage requirements for 24 firearms in residences;

25 (iv) Federal peace officers, general authority Washington peace
26 officers, limited authority Washington peace officers, and specially 27 commissioned Washington peace officers as those terms are defined in 28 RCW 10.93.020;

29 (v) A person who holds a valid Washington or out-of-state hunting 30 license and who is engaged in lawful hunting activities;

34 duty.

35 (2) Secure storage of firearms in residences.

36 (a) A person shall not store or leave a firearm in their 37 residence unless the firearm is securely stored whenever it is not 38 being carried or readily controlled by that person or another lawful 39 authorized user.

1 (b) For the purpose of this section, a firearm is "securely
2 stored" if it is either: (i) Locked or disabled using a tamper-3 resistant mechanical lock or other safety device properly engaged in 4 order to render the firearm inoperable by any person other than the 5 owner or other lawfully authorized user, and also kept out of plain 6 sight; or (ii) stored within a locked gun safe or similar locked 7 container secure from access by unauthorized users.

8 (c) For the purpose of this section, "carried or readily 9 controlled means" means either: (i) The person or other lawful 10 authorized user is carrying the firearm on their person; or (ii) the 11 person or other lawful authorized user is within close enough 12 proximity to the firearm to readily prevent unauthorized users from 13 gaining access to the firearm.

14 (d) For the purpose of this section "residence" means a building
15 or vehicle that a person habitually uses as living quarters a
16 majority of the time. "Uses as living quarters" means to conduct 17 activities consistent with the common understanding of residing, such 18 as sleeping; eating; keeping personal belongings; receiving mail; and 19 paying utilities, rent, or mortgage. A nonpermanent or movable
20 building or vehicle including, but not limited to, a motor home, 21 travel trailer, camper, or boat, may qualify as a residence provided 22 it is habitually used as living quarters a majority of the time.

23 (e) This subsection does not apply to antique firearms.

26 and subject to a monetary penalty of up to $1,000.

32 and use that firearm in the commission of any crime.

33 (iv) A violation of this section is a class C felony when the 34 violation allows a prohibited person to take possession of a firearm 35 and use that firearm to cause personal injury or death to a third
